

The International School Award (ISA)

Vana Vani has added another feather to her cap of glory. The school has won the 'International School Award' given by the British council.

The 'ISA' is an accreditation scheme offered by the British Council for introducing internationalism in curriculum based learning in schools across India.

Vana Vani applied for the award in March 2010. Beginning from June 2010 to January 2011, a series of activities was conducted from kindergarten to Std. XII involving a wide range of subjects. Evidences of all the activities were compiled and the dossier was presented to the council in March 2011. It was a moment of triumph for Vana Vani when the results were declared. The accreditation is valid for three years.

Vana Vani can use the logo of the British Council in all its official communication for 3 years (from March 2011 – March 2014). The award was presented at the formal ceremony conducted in New Delhi on 20th of October 2011. Three cheers to the Principal and the team of dedicated teachers and students who have achieved this for their school. A Special thanks to all the parents who also pitched in and have participated enthusiastically.

